

COMMAND SERGEANT MAJOR LEGAL ORIENTATION (CSMLO)

ATRRS INFORMATION

Course Number: 5F-F1-CSM

Course Length: 4.0 Days

Course Capacity: 85 Students

Prerequisites:

This course is for Brigade Command Sergeants Major (or equivalent) or those that have been selected for Brigade Command Sergeant Major (or equivalent) positions ONLY. TDY costs are funded by the unit of the individual attending.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course prepares Brigade Command Sergeants Major to identify and understand the critical legal topics that impact on their duties. Topics include military justice (including unlawful command influence and handling sexual assault cases), standards of conduct, military personnel law, civilian personnel law, investigations, and civil legal matters commonly affecting Soldiers, such as family support and consumer protection law.

WHEN TO ATTEND?

CSMLO is offered ANNUALLY in September. Fill out the application on the web site and e-mail it following the instructions on the form. TDY costs are funded by the unit of the individual attending.

CONTACTS

TJAGLCS: LTC Andrew Flor, 434-971-3304, andrew.d.flor.mil@mail.mil